

The Acceptance Policy — defacement or enrichment?

GOAL

Define the boundary between "defacement" and "enrichment" to draft a Statement of Participatory Stewardship.

CASE STUDY №

REVIEWER TEAM

DATE

1 Physical Assessment

TICK ALL THAT APPLY

- ☐ Does the intervention compromise the structural integrity or binding of the volume?
- ☐ Is the intervention reversible? e.g., clipped or tipped-in vs. permanently glued
- ☐ Does it obscure original text in a way that renders the source unusable?

2 Content & Ethics

TICK ALL THAT APPLY

- ☐ Does the intervention meet the "Pedagogical Intent"? e.g., provides a counter-narrative or critique
- ☐ Is the content free of libel or hate speech?
- ☐ Has the student signed a Creative Commons / Usage agreement?

3 Other Considerations

WEIGH BEFORE YOU DECIDE

CONSIDER —

- Precedent set for future submissions?
- Provenance, anonymity, or consent of original author?
- Cross-departmental implications (Catalogers, Public Services)?
- Long-term storage or conservation cost?
- Community or student voice that should be heard first?

4 Decision Matrix

SELECT ONE

☐ STATUS A Permanent Addition Catalog and shelf. Item enters the permanent record.	☐ STATUS B Temporary / Ephemeral Retain for a defined term, then deaccession or archive surrogate.	☐ STATUS C Rejected Returned to the creator with written rationale.
--	--	---

JUSTIFICATION

DISCLAIMER? stamp / band / insert